Sixty-First Annual Bourbon Fair Begins Today.

The sixty-first annual Bourbon county fair begins to-day at the beautiful grounds, near Paris, under most flattering prospects, and will continue for five days.

No finer exhibition of stock of every description will be seen in Kentucky this year than will be seen at the Bourbon Fair. The officers have put forth every effort to make the 1907 fair one of the banner fairs held in Kentucky.

New stables have been erected to accommodate the increased demand for live stock exhibitors and everything points to a most successful fair in every particular.

A first-class carnival company is on the grounds and the grounds will be brilliantly lighted with electric lights at night for the public to take in the midway. This will be one of the new enjoyable features this year.

Let our people attend every day and by encouraging the management so that the Old Bourbon Fair may soon take its rightful place at the head of all Kentucky fairs.

McChesney Makes Great Speech

Hon. H. V. McChesney, Secretary of State, opened the Democratic campaign here yesterday by making one of the best political speeches ever made in Bourbon county. There was a good crowd of Democrats to hear him, who gave the closest attention and their enthusiasm was unbounded.

Mr. McChesney hit hard, his sledge hammer blows were enough to knock Wilson out of the ring. He dealt in facts and stated that the campaign being made by Wilson was a campaign of unvarnished lies.

We regret that the lack of space forbids us publishing his entire speech.

Fair Fixings.

If you want the right kind of fair fixings, in way of dress shirts, neckwear, hats, or anything else to give the appearance of an up-to-date gentleman don't forget to call on the old reliable.

J. W. DAVIS & CO.

"A Success."

"The Herder," produced by the Murray-Denning Stock Co., at the Opera House last night was a high success. The play in itself is one of the best plays ever written, full of pathos and humor and in fact an educating lesson to those that attended.

The specialties between acts were all high-class, including Smith and Arado, the Sours, James Shaver, Chas. Sylvester, Bonnie Arado, Jack Campbell and others.

Tonight the company will present "The Girl and the Gambler," another high-class production, with an entire change of specialties.

Fall Styles in Millinery Are Perfect Gems.

Mrs. Corne Watson Baird has just returned from the East with the Fall and Winter styles of millinery, which are simply gems. What ever you do ladies, don't fail to call and look over this line, for there was never such a line in Paris before. Mrs. Baird seemed to take particular pains while in the East to select a line of up-to-date millinery to please everybody. She cordially invites the visitors in our city this week to call.

Window Display of Harness.

All persons visiting the fair should not fail to notice the elegant display of harness in our South window. No such harness was ever brought to Paris at the prices we are selling it at. The quality is the best. Call and have a look.

LAVIN & CONNELL.

Specials Worth Going After.

On page 51 of the catalog of the Bourbon County Agricultural Society will be found a special premium offered by the Kauffman Buggy Co., through its representatives in Paris, Yerkes & Kenney, for $20.00 for the best harness horse, gelding or mare, driven to a Kaufman vehicle, purchased of Yerkes & Kenney, and $10 for second premium.

On page 57 of the catalog, you will also find a special premium of $20 offered by H. H. Babcock Co., through their agency, Yerkes & Kenney, and $10 for second premium.

The above specials are liberal and shows the interest taken in the Bourbon Fair by this enterprising young firm of Yerkes & Kenney, dealers in fine vehicles, farm implements, feed, grain, seed, salt and coal.

The amount of the premiums are well worth trying for, as they would knock a nice sum off the cost of one of these excellent vehicles. There are none better made. Call on these gentlemen at R. J. Neely's old stand, corner Fourth and Pleasant, and they will take pleasure in showing you the finest line of fine vehicles ever seen in Paris.

The Columbus Buggy Company will also give $25 cash for the best horse, mare or gelding, hitched to a Columbus buggy bought this year of Yerkes & Kenney.

It is almost useless for us to say a word in regard to this old company for the Columbus Company buggy is known far and wide. It might be well to call attention to the general line of vehicles handled by Yerkes & Kenney. If you cannot find a vehicle to suit you after visiting the vehicle department of this firm it is indeed useless to look elsewhere.

Great Gathering at Democratic Opening.

S. W. Hager, Democratic nominee for Governor, formally opened his campaign at Lexington, Saturday, speaking to three thousand men and women, who had gathered from the counties of Central Kentucky to aid in the celebration. He outlined his platform and declared in favor of the county unit law in all counties, for Sunday closing of saloons and for a tax rate of forty cents. He gave his pledge not to be a candidate for any office, if elected Governor. Gov. Beckham spoke briefly after Judge Hager had finished. Special trains had brought in large delegations with bands, and Lexington was filled with Democrats. John K. Hendrick, who was to have spoken, was delayed by bad train connections, and was not present.

About four hundred Bourbon Democrats headed by Judge Denis Dundon, H. O. Al. Thompson, J. T. Hinton and H. O. James went up from here to lend enthusiasm to the mighty crowd. The Lexington Herald says the following of our Paris band:

"Shortly after noon Saturday, the Gazette and morning Herald was the recipient of an excellent serenade by the progressive Elks Band of Paris, headed by several prominent Democrats of that city.

"The Bourbon delegation was indeed lucky to have such an excellent organization to head it to the great Democratic rally in this city. Under Dr. W. C. Ussery, of Paris, this splendid band is making great strides and promises to be one of the leading organizations of the kind within the next year.

"All hats off to Bourbon, their splendid organization and last but not least, its excellent band."

Severe Electric Storm.

Friday afternoon about 5:30 o'clock Millersburg, this county, was visited by a severe electric storm, burning out a number of telephones and doing other damage.

Mrs. John C. Leer and her guest Mrs. O. P. Carter, Jr., and daughter, Miss Elizabeth Stuart, were standing in the former's hall when an electric ball fell in front of the residence, plowing the earth for considerable distance. The shock knocked Mrs. Leer and Mrs. Carter down, the former remaining unconscious for some time being also slightly burned about the ankle. Little Elizabeth was unharmed. Mrs. Leer's condition is not thought to be critical by her physician.

Fall Millinery.

Ladies, while attending the fair this week don't fail to call at Mrs. Corne Watson Baird's Millinery emporium on Main street! Here you will find the swellest line of Fall and Winter Millinery ever seen in Central Kentucky.

After that date we will devote our time in running a first-class meat market—we will handle nothing but the best home-killed meats, fresh vegetables, game of all kinds, and every delicacy in this line that the market affords.

MARGOLEN.

Capt. Spears' Funeral.

The funeral of Capt. E. F. Spears was largely attended Saturday morning by relatives, friends and ex-Confederate soldiers. In the absence of Rev. Dr. E. H. Rutherford of whose church Capt. Spears was an Elder, the services were conducted by Elder Carey E. Morgan.

The floral tributes were the handsomest ever seen at a funeral in this city, yet but feebly showing the high esteem in which Capt. Spears was held by the people of this community.

One of the handsomest floral designs was a beautiful pillow, sent by Mrs. General Williams, who was formerly Mrs. Hamilton, of this county. The pillow was made of red and white roses and lilies of the valley. The general background was pure white.

In the center was a solid white section which had across it in small red roses the letters, "H. G.," standing for Hamilton Guards, the first company organized in Bourbon county. The company was equipped and furnished by Mrs. Hamilton, and was called the Hamilton Guards throughout the war. The company was a part of the Orphans' Brigade and Captain Spears was a member.

Invitation to the Ladies.

Mrs. Corne Watson Baird most cordially invites the ladies of this and adjoining counties to call this week and inspect the handsomest line of millinery ever seen in Central Kentucky. If you have visitors for the fair bring them with you.

"Black Beauty" will spend the entire day on the Fairgrounds and hopes to have the pleasure of meeting all the boys and girls of Bourbon county who are trying to secure her and her stylish outfit free.

This complete outfit will be given away to the one securing the largest number of subscribers to the Kentucky Observer. The contest runs until November 30 and everyone has plenty of time to work.

Court Day.

There was a fair court day crowd in town yesterday, but little trading was indulged in. Seven or eight mules on the market and no sales made.

There were 140 cattle at M. J. Murphy's pens. Murphy sold 26 yearlings to Howell & Clydemore, and 18 heifers to Wm. Jacobs and 8 head to Bob Terrell.

Simon Weil sold 30 yearlings, average 700 pounds, at 41 cents per pound, and 25 to another party at same price. Hibler Bros. sold 150 head of sheep at from $5.50 to $6 per head.

The Little Rock Camp of the Modern Woodmen is planning for a log-rolling and monster public picnic, at Little Rock, Saturday, September 7. Noted Speaker from Louisville, Lexington and Paris have been engaged and the North Middletown brass band will furnish music, and a big crowd will be there. The exercises will last from 2 to 10 p. m. One great feature will be a log-rolling, and rope pulling contest, between the local camp and visiting Woodmen, for cash prizes—an innovation borrowed from Western Woodmen. Ice cream cake and substantial lunches will be served on the ground in abundance for the benefit of the Camp.

Shot Herself.

Carrie Henderson, colored, of Millersburg, while seated in front of the colored restaurant of James Madden, in that town, was shot in the right leg about 7:30 Friday evening. The case is shrouded in mystery some claim that she accidentally dropped a pistol and it went off, others that she shot herself on purpose. The woman refuses to talk.
